PHOTO POLICY

Your pet's care is our number one priority, and we will always put them first!

Our staff here at Bed & Biscuits love to be able to capture and share some of your pets' experiences during their stay. However. there are times our staff cannot snap and share photos. The photos are an additional free bonus, and when it is extremely busy, time doesn't allow us to snap photos as it takes away from our guest's care. Please do not expect photos every day. There is no cause for concern if you did not receive a photo of your pet. and you are always welcome to email or call to check in.
